

Starter

Your Car

Presents left in full view

Keep presents out of sight if they can be seen they can be stolen

Sat Nav's and Laptops

These items are currently high on the car thieves shopping list
When you leave your car take them with you

Car left unlocked

Always close windows, never leave keys in the ignition, engage steering lock and alarm and lock all doors

Parking

Park in well lit areas, or in attended car park and do not obstruct other vehicles

Main Course

Your House

Doors and windows not secured

Ensure all doors and windows are locked

Gifts displayed under the tree ensure all gifts are kept out of view

Car keys and handbags conveniently placed never leave car keys or handbags downstairs at night - take them to bed with you

The unoccupied look - going on holiday -

Use lights with timers both inside and out.
Ask a neighbour to visit your house.
If you are registered with the GNR Safe Residence Program inform your SRP team.

Cold Callers and opening door to strangers.

Do not give personal details to cold callers over the phone.
Do not let strangers or salesmen into your house

Desserts

Your Property

Easy theft from homes

Keep valuable items in a well fitted safe.
Make a record of model/serial numbers of electrical items/cameras etc

Wallets and handbags

Keep wallets in front pockets and handbag under your arm. Do not place them on counters or market stalls.

Cheque book and Card left unattended

Never leave your cheque book and card together, keep your pin number confidential.
Do not write your pin number down on a piece of paper or make a note in your diary - thieves know where to look

Cash

Do not carry large amounts of cash or leave it in your house, thieves know where to look!

