

Functions of the GNR -Safety

- Ensure security conditions that allow the exercise of rights and freedoms and respect for guarantees of citizens and the full functioning of democratic institutions, respect for legality and the rule of law;
- Ensure public order and peace and security and the protection of persons and property;
- Preventing crime in general, in coordination with other forces and security services;
- Prevent the commission of other acts contrary to the law and regulations;
- Protect, help and assist citizens and defend and preserve the assets that are in danger for reasons from human action or nature;
- Vigilance and protection of sensitive areas, including road infrastructure, rail, airport and port, public buildings and other critical facilities;
- Ensuring security in the shows, including sports and other recreation and leisure activities in accordance with the law;
- Contribute to training and information on the security of citizens;
- Pursue other duties as assigned by law.

