

Calling UK Police from abroad

Using a Portuguese tel number it is not possible to call the UK emergency number 999 from abroad.

The non-emergency number is 101

However the 101 service is only available if you are dialling from within England, Scotland, Wales or Northern Ireland. If you need to contact the police from elsewhere please use the list of alternative non-emergency numbers.

A number of small police stations are only open between certain hours and maybe closed on Saturdays and Sundays. The following are the main constabulary headquarters for each county in the UK where you can contact from abroad.
